

COLOMBIA'S PEACE PROCESS WITH THE FARC: Achievements and Challenges Ahead

Elvira María Restrepo, Department of Geography

There are no rigid templates or magic formulae for building peace. This talk discusses the roadmap of the Colombian peace process that was both innovative and ingenious in terminating the oldest armed conflict in the hemisphere. It also reveals the intertwined roles and stories of the process' main actors in the journey to peace and the challenges ahead.

October 4 | 12:00 p.m.-1:30 p.m.

Albert Pick Hall
1541 Brescia Avenue
Coral Gables, FL 33146

Lunch provided

Department of Geography's Speaker Series